

Board Member

Prentiss Baker, Sr.

Colonel (Retired) Baker is a respected community leader in Metro Atlanta with a deep commitment to high school student development and veteran advocacy. He brings 27 years of military service, 10 years as Director of JROTC for Atlanta Public Schools, and many years of leadership as Commander of VFW Post 6449. Throughout his career, Colonel Baker has worked to mentor and develop high school students, especially JROTC cadets, while also championing causes that support veterans and their families. As a Board Member, he leads the Scholarship Selection Committee, helping ensure that the Dr. Eula Cohen Scholarship is awarded to deserving high-achieving JROTC cadets. Colonel Baker believes that strong families, food security, and educational opportunity are essential to student success and community well-being.
