

Vice Chair

Pamela Maroney-Moore

Pamela serves as the Vice Chair of Robert F. Greene, 555th Parachute Infantry Association, where she is dedicated to preserving the legacy of the historic “Triple Nickles.” As the spouse of a retired U.S. Army veteran, Pamela brings both personal and professional commitment to honoring military service and heritage. In her role within the Association, Pamela leads and manages the Chapter’s Outreach programs while developing meaningful community engagement and educational opportunities. Pamela is especially passionate about connecting history with the next generation. Her goal is to bridge the gap between military history and modern youth mentorship through the Chapter’s annual scholarship initiatives, fostering awareness, leadership, and opportunity for young people in her community.
